On the plains of Ca-ro-li-na, 'neath the skies so blue,
By Me-her-rin's rip-pling wa-ters, where the sun-beams play, stands our no-ble Al-ma Ma-ter, glo-ri-ous to view.

we, her lo-yal sons and dau-ghters, pledge our love for aye.

With her clas-sic walls and co-lumns, looks she prou-dly down, Praise to her! God grant His bles-sings; may he give rich store.

reared a-gainst the arch of hea-ven with her stars for crown.
Cho-wan we will e-ver che-rish, love her e-ver more.
